IT'S OVER!
YOU'RE a GRADUATE!
HERE'S YOUR MUSIC
PLAYLIST!

You've endured long hours of classes. You've stood in the stands as your team fought for victory. You've worked side-by-side with friends and classmates. You've studied, talked, written, and read your way through your high school experience. And now, it's over!

But, it's not over.

You're finished with high school, but the rest of your life is waiting. You'll need lots of encouragement and direction as you step into your future. You'll need to make sure that your life matters, and what you're living for is worth the effort.

That's where these grad-themed songs, videos, books, links, and devotionals can help. You'll find songs that will help you face the tough choices you'll have to make. You'll find advice to help you maximize the opportunities that await you. You'll hear from musicians, authors, speakers, and even fellow grads.

These songs can become the soundtrack of your summer – and the next step that you're taking. Get them into all your devices – phone, computer, car stereo – and let them become one of your key playlists as you move into your future!

ConGRADulations! You've made it! Now is the time to celebrate and enjoy your accomplishment. We are proud of you!
